Getting Started with Process Intelligence

The expert know-how that helps companies set a solid foundation for process discovery with Process Intelligence.

What is a Success Accelerator?

Discover new ways to grow your business through operational efficiencies, improved customer satisfaction, revenue opportunities and more to accelerate the timeline for achieving the vision of what a digital workforce can do for your business.

Why choose the Process Intelligence Accelerator?

Blue Prism Process Intelligence enables businesses to automatically build an interactive digital twin of their processes, analyze them in real time to identify bottlenecks, and predict future outcomes to facilitate decision-making of technology investments. This package enables customers to accelerate process discovery by identifying opportunities for automation within Blue Prism.

What to expect:

- Support with installation of the Process Intelligence software
- Process and task assessment workshops with your business areas to identify and analyze target processes and understand your automation objectives
- A Process Definition Document via Blue Prism Capture and provide the wireframe for identified automations
- Training will be provided to your Center of Excellence and Business Users
- Ongoing monthly governance meetings to support with continuous improvement
