Supercharge your digital workforce

Consume

Take a big sigh of relief. Blue Prism Digital Exchange has the components you need to expand your intelligent automations, so you don't have to spend time building them yourself. Just another way Blue Prism makes you a little more human.

Why reinvent the wheel?

Other automators save you time by sharing complete processes.

Upskill your digital workers quickly with more basic skills.

You're using lots of software.

Connecting it to Blue Prism is easy.

You're intelligent.

Shouldn't your digital workforce be too? You're just one click away from six intelligent skills.

Our six intelligent automation skills are the digital cognitive capabilities that digital workers need to work seamlessly with human workers and take on advanced tasks.

Contribute

Intelligent automation is a team sport. Contribute your technology and expertise to Blue Prism Digital Exchange. It makes intelligent automation easier for others, and it gets your name out!

Anyone can submit their automation components to Blue Prism Digital Exchange. Take our partnership even further by joining the Technology Alliance Program as an affiliate or premier partner, and you'll get maximum exposure to thousands of automators.

“I am always looking up tracking numbers for the products I purchase. Also, I’m impressed with companies that check in with me once I receive my order. It makes sense that a digital worker tracks these shipments, confirms the delivery, and reaches out to the customer to help organizations nurture that relationship.”

Charlie Kovacs | Blue Prism Developer Consultant, Contributed UPS Web Service Connector

Collaborate

Great intelligent automation is about collaboration, because many more human heads are better than one. Automators collaborate; they help each other out and suggest shortcuts and solutions. Everything just works better when everyone is operating at full capacity. So now it's your turn.

Download as many assets as you'd like; most of them are free! But don't stop there. Join the Blue Prism DX community (<https://community.blueprism.com/communities/tech-chat>) and engage with other automators who are trying to solve the same problems you are working on.
