

Jumpstart

Establish your intelligent automation team while Blue Prism Success Services delivers your first process automation.

Now that you've invested in a digital workforce, you need to prove its value quickly. But before you can build and execute process automations, you have to stand up your go-to automation team, protocols, and Center of Excellence (CoE).

To help you achieve faster value and ROI from your digital workforce, Blue Prism offers Jumpstart, a Starter Success Package designed to help you establish your first automated process in conjunction with your efforts to build and fortify your automation infrastructure.

When you choose Jumpstart, here's what you can expect:

- 1 pre-sale process selection workshop where we scope and identify the process that the Blue Prism Success Services team will execute on your behalf.
- 1-2 processes developed and ready-for-execution
- 10-20 additional processes in pipeline for continuous automation value

VALUE AND POTENTIAL OUTCOMES:

- Established pipeline of continuous automation value for the new intelligent automation team.
- Process delivered into production while intelligent automation team undergoes training.
- Process delivered using industry leading best practices, establishing a strong foundation for continued success.
- Immediate value and automation impact
